ABOUT HUNDRED YOUTH AMBASSADORS

HundrED Youth Ambassadors is an active community of students from around the world who are passionate about improving education and want to work with other like-minded young changemakers. This one-year program is a global opportunity for young future leaders of the world to

- Engage in cross-cultural discussions with peers from around the world
- Learn about global education trends and inspiring impactful innovations
- Optionally organize local events and campaigns that capture student voices and share with the world.

WHAT YOU WILL BE DOING

Every year, we select 100 young leaders from around the world who are passionate about education’s potential and want to work with other young people to spark change. As HundrED Youth Ambassadors, these future leaders are invited to:

- Seek and share student voice: Youth Ambassadors help capture students’ needs and desires from education through our national Youth Survey, which helps guide the creation of our annual Global Collection of inspiring, impactful & scalable innovations in K12 education.
- Validate Innovations: Provide youth perspective and insights on shortlisted Global and Spotlight innovations as part of the HundrED Academy or Advisory boards respectively.
- Inspire Youth Leadership: Inspire community involvement in helping transform education through innovations. Youth Ambassadors can host local awareness events like HundrED GLocals and/or advocate for education innovations in their local schools, media outlets & larger community events.
